Downton Abbey offers a grand dramatic vision of Learning Unscripted: Presentations and Conversations with Learning Leaders shift from the traditional class society and the changes after WW1 ... The grand historical narratives gives us a feeling of historicity ... they let us see humans as historical beings; individual characters and their lives woven into the larger pattern of a historical period, moving and enlightening at the same time ... I feel a national pride when Danish series like Borgen and The Killing can become cult in the UK ... but there is still some way to go before we Danes develop a grand historical series, which has so far only been created with Matador.
