Consequently the audience takes the position of the camera; its approach is that of testing. Older inmates are isolated and often afraid of younger inmates who increasingly have drug and psychiatric problems or have gang affiliations and seek to make a name for themselves using violence Edwards In many cases, elderly prisoners are physically incapable of committing a violent-or possibly any-crime. I am not going to say to much . Combine and let marinate in the fridge. But when things inevitably start to feel difficult - or futile, or boring, or scary, or overwhelming - the people who have the ability to control their behavior are the ones who hang in there and keep moving toward their goal.
