The first theory is that the Persian cavalry left Marathon for an unspecified reason, and that the Greeks moved to take advantage of this by attacking. Opening his locker he was kind of surprised at the bright pink post-it note that had clearly been slid through the grates of said locker and was now stuck to his math book. She moved here for the love of her life, which was a disaster. It seems that over the years people had contributed large amounts to this fund, but very little was needed to maintain a small cemetery adjacent to the church property.
